

Nation of Heartsavers™, Heartsaver College Organization College Ambassador Program Criteria & Benefits

To achieve a Nation of Heartsavers, Heartsaver College Organization recognition award:

- An official American Heart Association (AHA) College Ambassador organization
- Use the University Toolkit located here.
- Conduct self-guided hands-only CPR training on your college campus 4 times per school year using the CPR & First Aid Anywhere™ Training Kit (minimum: 100 people trained)
- Mentor and/or train a local school in hands-only CPR as well as safety and emergency preparedness (1x per school year)
- Enroll a minimum of 5 other College Organizations/University Departments to become a Heartsaver College Organization to create more Hands-Only CPR trained bystanders in campus communities (Purchase a CPR & First Aid Anywhere Training Kit and complete the criteria)
- Create giveaway opportunity for 4 individuals using CPR Anytime Adult & Child Training Kits ($38.50)
- Share your stories - 2 blog stories (500 words) of campus wide Health & Safety testimonials that are featured on CPRblog.heart.org

College Organization Benefits:

Organizations that achieve the Nation of Heartsavers, Heartsaver College Organization recognition can receive:

- An official recognition letter sent from the American Heart Association (AHA)
- A recognition certificate to display at your community office
- Recognition on the AHA program website at www.heart.org/NationOfHeartsavers
- The rights to use the AHA Heartsaver College Organization insignia within your school organization for social media, website and email for one school year